TRAVEL

Like most conferences, travel is separate from the registration costs. However, substantial bursaries are offered based on need - we strive to make conference accessible and desire that money not be a barrier - especially to reduce costs of travel for those farther away.

On behalf of SCM, we are honoured and excited that you will be joining with us for this program! Please take some time to read and sign the statement below. These help keep this program safe(r) for us all, and commit ourselves to taking responsibility for how our actions affect the group. That said, SCM programs are always a lot of fun and we look forward to seeing you there!

RELEASE OF LIABILITY & AGREEMENT TO RESPECT SCM COMMUNITY NORMS

As a voluntary participant in this program, I agree to respect the bodily, mental, and spiritual integrity of myself and others. I commit myself to respecting the group and those welcoming us. I will welcome each individual who wishes to join us and recognize the gifts that the diversity of our ethnicities, genders, abilities, religious affiliations & theologies, sexual orientations, political views and identities bring to this programme. I have read the SCM's Anti-Oppression Covenant (<http://www.scmcanada.org/oppresion>) and agree to uphold in my actions and words its intent during my time at this program. I will strive to ensure this gathering is safe and supportive of all participants – regardless of sexual/gender identity, ethnic background, economic status, and theological/political background, and will strive to challenge oppression in any of its forms.

I hereby confirm that I have voluntarily chosen to participate in the Student Christian Movement's General Conference, May 2-9, 2010. I expressly and voluntarily assume all such risks that may result from my participation. By submitting this form, I allow the release of photographs or videos produced by SCM Canada which contain or bear my image to become creative property of SCM and used for SCM-related purposes and publicity.

For safety reasons, I may request that photos and videos not be published with my image; however, I hereby acknowledge that I will not hold SCM legally responsible should such images be released and recognize that this is essentially a public gathering.
